Utah Central Railway,

THE PIONEER LINE OF UTAH,

Is Standard Guage, and running through the centre of Utah affords to travellers a safe, speedy and pleasant route to all the principal towns and cities of Utah, and is the only line running to Southern Utah.

The Equipment is First Class, the Road Bed Solid, and Fast Time is Made.

THIS POPULAR LINE

Makes close connection with THE UNION PACIFIC at Ogden for Denver, Kansas City, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York, Boston, and all points East.

CONNECTS AT OGDEN

With the CENTRAL PACIFIC for Sacramento, San Francisco, and all points on the Pacific Coast. Also with UTAH and NORTHERN R'Y for all points in Northern Utah, Idaho and Montana.

PASSENGER TRAINS RUN DAILY BETWEEN SALT LAKE AND OGDEN and BETWEEN SALT LAKE and SOUTH.

Order of Arrangement.

This work opens with a general Name-Directory of Salt Lake City; after which follow a Guide Book, a Compendium of useful information, and a Digest of the Commercial Laws of the Territory. Next in order is a Business Directory of Salt Lake City, followed by that of the smaller towns in Salt Lake County. The more important and larger counties of the Territory are then given, and these are succeeded by the remaining Counties in alphabetical order, with every town in the respective Counties in the same order, giving, however, the precedence to the County seats in said Counties.

"Probatum Est."

THE PROVO

PREFACE.

We take no little pleasure in presenting this work to the public. It is the largest of the kind ever published in Utah, and embraces a vast amount of information of intense interest to bankers, merchants, tradesmen and the general readers in this Territory, and adjacent Territories and States. Every effort has been exerted to make it correct, reliable and complete; and the publishers pride themselves in their success in these respects.

The necessity for such a Directory is evident to every observing resident of the Territory, and it will fill a want much and long experienced in our growing and prosperous communities.

In addition to a complete Directory, we have added a Guide Book, and a Digest of the Commercial Laws of Utah, which will enhance the value of this work as a handy book of varied and useful information. We need not mention the difficulties we had to overcome in compiling, making and completing a work of this character.

TUTT'S PILLS.

Are extracted from Vegetable products, combining in them the Mandrake or May Apple, which is recognized by physicians as a substitute for calomel, possessing all the virtues of that mineral without its bad after effects.

AS AN ANTI-BILIOUS MEDICINE

They are incomparable. They stimulate the Torpid Liver, invigorate the Nervous System, and give tone to the Digestive Organs, creating perfect digestion and thorough assimilation of food. They exert a powerful influence on the Kidneys and Liver, and through these organs remove all impurities, thus vitalizing the tissues of the body and causing a healthy condition of the system.

AS AN ANTI-MALARIAL REMEDY

They have no equal; and, as a result, act as a preventive and cure for Billious, Remittent, Intermittent, Typhoid Fevers, and Fever and Ague. Upon the healthy action of the Stomach depends, almost wholly, the health of the human race.

DYSPEPSIA IS THE BANE

Of the present generation. It is for the cure of this disease and its attendants. Sick Headache. Nervousness, Despondency, Constipation, Piles, etc., that TUTT'S PILLS have gained such a wide-spread reputation. No remedy has ever been discovered that acts so speedily and gently on the digestive organs, giving them tone and vigor to assimilate food. This being accomplished, of course the Nervous System is braced, the Brain is nourished. and the Body robust.

Being composed of the juices of plants extracted by powerful chemical agencies, and prepared in a concentrated form, they are guaranteed free from anything that can injure the most delicate person.

A noted chemist, who has analyzed them, says, "there is more virtue in one of TUTT'S PILLS than can be found in a pint of any other.

We therefore say to the afflicted: "Try this remedy fairly; it will not harm you. You have nothing to lose but will surely gain a Vigorous Body, Pure Blood, Strong Nerves and a Cheerful Mind."

ADVICE TO THE AGED.

Age brings with it infirmities of the body. Our bodies need repairing and strengthening as much as the houses we live in. Old persons are all, more or less, subject to constipation, weakness of the stomach, bowels, kidneys and bladder. In these cases the strengthening and nutritious qualities of TUTT'S PILLS are wonderful. Their use will stimulate the sluggish bowels, giving natural discharges without straining or griping when at stool; cause the kidneys and bladder to perform their functions as in youth. Every dose will add vigor and strength to these debilitated organs. In Dr. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS the dyspeptic, the bilious, the debilitated, and the nervous will find the most genial restorative ever offered to the suffering invalid.

PRICE 25c. a Box. Office 35 Murray Street, New York.

Dr. TUTT'S MANUAL of Valuable information and Useful Receipts will be mailed free on application.

TUTT'S HAIR DYE!

Is a Great Triumph of Chemistry.

Gray Hair or Whiskers can be changed to a Glossy Black by a single application. It imparts a natural color, acts instantly, and is harmless as spring water. YOU NEED NOT FEAR that people will know that your hair is dyed if you use that perfect imitation of nature, TUTT'S HAIR DYE. No one can detect it, It imparts a soft glossy color, and fresh life to the hair—a want never before supplied.

UTAH.

This Territory is one of the oldest belonging to the United States. The tread of the white man, for the purpose of settlement and the permancy of modern civilization, first echoed in it in July, 1847, when a company of pioneer Americans rested their weary limbs and ended their searching pilgrimage, finding a home which they hoped to make permanent in the wilderness of these uncultured valleys. It is situated between latitude 37° and 42° N, and longitude 109° and 114° W. It is bounded on the N. by Idaho Territory, N. E. by a portion of Wyoming Territory, E. by the State of Colorado, S. by Arizona Territory and W. by the State of Nevada. Its general length, N. and S. is about 325 miles, and its breadth 300 miles, giving a superfices of 34,476 square miles, or 51,064,640 acres. It is an immense basin from 4,000 feet to 5,000 feet above sea level, surrounded by mountains which at some points attain the altitude of 8,000 to 12,000 feet. Utah is divided into two unequal parts by the Wasatch mountains running from N. E. to S. W. The country East of the Wasatch range is more rugged and mountainus than the portion West of it, and has a greater number of rivers, which mostly flow through steep canyon gorges. The country West of the Wasatch has a number of disconnected valleys, running generally Northerly and Southerly, bounded by low mountains. The South East part of the Territory comprises large and undulating plateaus Nearly all the rivers of Utah, especially the Western part, empty into Great Salt Lake, and have no outlet to the ocean. In the Eastern part the waters flow into Green River, thence into the Colorado River and the Pacific Ocean.

The aspect of the Territory is varied in its appearance, consisting of lofty mountains, picturesque and sublime; valleys rich in soil and productive in all kinds of cereals, fruit and plants; rivers full of life and supplying cheering draughts to the parched land; and lakes of beauty and clearness, mirroring the heavens on their bosoms. The mountains are ever green with the foliage of the living trees on millions of acres, and white in the winter, having caught the snows to cover their heads from the cold blasts of the frosty atmosphere, to melt into cheering draughts, leaping through the canyons in the Spring to revive the thirsty earth. In the bosoms of the mountains are hidden the riches of the earth, and gold, silver, lead, copper, iron, antimony, mica, sulphur, salt, and coal in abundance are brought out to enrich the world, and benefit our people annually.

Not only are Utah's mountains the depository of vast and untold riches, its land productive and generous, its air pure and salubrious, its streams full of life and its climate clear, elastic and healthful, embracing a choice variety, suited to the many human temperaments; but the Great Salt Lake is most attractive and wonderful. Fed by the various large streams of fresh water, its water is strongly impregnated with salt, and has no visible outlet Its length is about 80 miles and its breadth 30 miles; but its periphery is very irregular; the surface, however, covers about 2,400 square miles. It is said by some writers that no animal life exists within its waters, but this we think is not correct, for near the margin a low state of organic life has been frequently observed called by some artemia salina. This lake is 4,218 ft above sea level; and it is dotted over with nine islands, the largest of which is 16 miles in length, a few of them rising 3,000 feet out of the lake. During the summer season tens of thousands of persons visit its shore and bathe in its delightful and wholesome waters.

An analysis of the water made in 1877, by Surgeon Smart, U. S. A., showed an imperial gallon to contain about 24½ ounces of saline matter, being about fourteen per centum, as follows:

Common Salt	11.735
Lime Carbonate	.016
Lime Sulphate	.073
Epson Salt	1.123
Chloride of Magnesia	.843
Percentage of Solids	13.790
Water	86.210
	100

It compares with other saline waters, thus:

	WATER.	SOLIDS.
Atlantic Ocean	96.5	3.5
Mediterranean Sea	96.2	3.8
Dead Sea	76.	24.
Great Salt Lake	86.	14.

It was known to exist in 1869, but only by the uncertain description gathered from the Indians by Baron La Hortan. Col. J. C. Fremont in 1842, floated on its waters in his India-rubber punt, the first, likely, in this generation, of man that glided over its surface. In 1850, Capt. Stansbury explored its shores and Islands, and gave an interesting and particular description of it to the world. Utah began to be the home of civilization in 1847, when a band of 163 American citizens rested their tired feet on what is now known as Temple block in Salt Lake City. Uninviting as the aspect then was, they began at once to cultivate the land, and by way of experiment cast in the seed, hoping for a harvest. It was then a part of Mexico, but far from the institutions and influence or protection of that government. These pioneers, however, brought with them the love of their native country and its institutions, and proceeded at as early a moment as practicable to elect and organize a Provisional Government. They thus governed themselves as American citizens from July 1847 to Sep. 9th, 1850, at which latter date an Act of Congress was passed organizing Utah Territory, their memorial prayer of March 8th, 1849 to Congress for a State Government, with the name of DESERET, having been refused. Thus they lived while it was a portion of a Mexican State, and for a time when it became the property of the United states under its own government. without aid or protection but from its own laws and officers. From July 1847 it increased in population annually until in 1850 the inhabitants numbered 11,380, in 1860 they nnmbered 40,273, in 1870 there were 86,786, and in 1880 a total of 143,963 souls. From the first the number of Indians residing in Utah was inconsiderable. In the first years they were very few indeed. It is said by an eye witness that they were very low in the scale of being, living on roots, with fruit and small game. A cluster of these poor creatures that hovered around Salt Lake City, in the winter season, would go of a morning to the Warm Springs, strip and warm themselves in the waters, remaining therein for hours at a time, until the sun arose pouring out his warmth for their saturated skins.

Throughout the whole territory cities, towns and settlements are seen, marked with comfortable homes and fruitful gardens. Year after year improvements increase, and modern dwellings take the place of the former more common houses, giving all an air of comfort, plenty and taste. The taxable property of the Territory amounts to $30,000,000; the rates of taxation are low, and in no State or Territory are they so moderate, yet it is entirely free from debt. Institutions of learning exist in every city, and educational interests are discussed everywhere. The facilities for a good education are within the reach of the poorest citizens. Seminaries, Academies and high schools abound throughout its borders, and colleges, with the University, open their doors invitingly to ambitious students.

The various religious denominations are well represented throughout the Territory, and many preachers of eminent talent occupy the pulpits and work assiduously to lead sinners to righteousness, as well as attract numbers to their various faiths. The church of the Latter-day Saints, as a matter of course, is the most numerous, and meeting houses are erected in all the cities, towns and settlements, where the Elders discourse and teach every Sunday. There is one Temple finished, peculiar to this faith, for the private administration of ordinances and endowments, said to affect the living and the dead. This is not open for services to the public or mixed audiences. The auditoriums of the public preaching of the work, and teaching of the Saints consist of tabernacles in the larger towns and meeting houses—one meeting house, at least, being in every Ward throughout the Territory, presided over by a bishop and two counsellors, or assistant-bishops. The Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Methodists have houses of worship and organizations in many places, and are actively engaged in disseminating the principles of their faith in doing good, in endeavoring to lead men and women to God, and in establishing schools and academies. The Baptist church has hitherto been the most unsuccessful of all the christian churches, but lately has shown a praiseworthy persistence in obtaining a position among the churches. The Sabbath day is becomingly respected everywhere, not only as a secular day of rest—its original purpose—but to listen to spiritual teachings and duties consequent on the position and condition of the people, from the lips of those who feel the responsibility of leading mankind to walk the divine path to eternal life.

Railroads intersect and run parallel with each other to the four cardinal points, and communication with distant parts is easily made accessible.

Previous to the completion of the Pacific Railways, the imports of the Territory, from the most careful computation, were near 12,000 tons yearly, with trifling exports. But the imports and exports, since the Union Pacific and Central Pacific and Utah Central Railroads were completed in 1869, have increased to the enormous amount of 125,000 tons annually—the classes of goods, produce, minerals and machinery, incidental to the growing wants of an increasing community, and the patrons of the comforts, wants, tastes and luxury of our advanced civilization, and valued at near $23,000,000.

All the advantages of modern civilization are amongst us, and the blessings, comforts and luxuries of the world are laid in our lap speedily at low figures and deliciously fresh.

SALT LAKE CITY.

Salt Lake City is the capital of Utah Territory; and as Paris is said to be France, so it may be said of Salt Lake City, that it is Utah. All its interests, commerce, arts and developments are centered here. Its inhabitants represent all the nationalities that are elsewhere found within its borders. The Legislature meets here, and the chief presiding authorities of its popular church reside here; and most of the schemes and measures, organized for the welfare of the whole, originate and are organized in this cosmopolitan city.

It is situated in the northeast corner of Salt Lake valley and county, at the western base or slope of a spur of the Wasatch range of mountains, running westerly to the river called the Jordan, and about 12 miles east from the southeast corner lines or shores of the Great Salt Lake. The northeastern and eastern wards of this city extend on the bench lands or plateaus of the mountains. It is 4,320 feet above the level of the sea, surrounded on the east by a range of mountains, their rugged and irregular apices ranging from 6,000 to 11,000 feet above the sea level or from 2,000 to 7,000 feet above the level of the city, rising abruptly from the gently inclining slopes that mark the bench lands. The mountains on the northern boundary appear much lower and more regular in formation. The west mountains or Oquirrh range of the valley are comparatively lower than the eastern, but are about 12 miles south by west of the city. It is located at latitude 40.° 46′ 08,″ north and west Greenwich longitude 112° 03′ 08,″ the variation of the magnetic needle at the base meridian being 16° 32′ East.

The city is laid out in square blocks containing ten acres each, in the original nineteen bishops' wards; nine of these blocks forming such a ward to the number of seventeen wards; but the 19th ward comprises many more of these blocks. The 18th, 20th and 21st wards contain blocks of 5 acres each. The streets run east and west, and north and south, of course, intersecting at right angles. The streets of the 19th ward are 132 feet wide each, with sidewalks of 20 feet wide included. The streets of the other wards are narrower as the blocks are smaller. On nearly each side of each street is a narrow channel, through which flow the limpid waters of City Creek, Red Butte or Emigration Canyon, according to the location of those waters. Shade trees are planted by the sides of these narrow streams, which are grateful to the pedestrians who tread the distant localities. The water flowing so freely, is used for irrigation purposes, for gardens and orchards throughout the city. The land of the city is cultivated largely in the seasons, every house having its little lot and generally orchard, so that, in the early summer, from the high or bench land, the whole city looks like one vast orchard with bloom and flower, and full of fragrance. The streets are named from the Temple block, north and south, east and west—the Temple block being the south-east block of the 17th ward. The streets, in the 20th and 21st wards are named after fruit, as Pine, Chestnut etc, and Mountain streets, and are narrower. The population of Salt Lake City in 1880 was 20,000, and is now about 22,000.

The city has a very efficient and energetic fire department; has extensive water works, whose mains are laid through the principal streets, with a good supply of pure water for culinary purposes and protection from fire. The Salt Lake Gas Company has pipes laid along many streets; and several stores and street corners hold up the grand electric light to the benighted pedestrians.

The horse-car railroad company have lines laid from the north-west of the city to the south-east, and from north-east to south-west. The lines centre at the square of the streets, intersecting at the Deseret Bank, Emporium, Kimball & Lawrence and Godbe blocks corners, running in eight different directions, leaving the double line between the Emporium and Godbe's corners every half hour, as well as from the terminus of each line. These cars are well patronized by the public, and the wonder now is, that the large city could do without them so long. So popular have they become, that new routes are in contemplation, and the older ones are lengthening.

There are several

PLACES OF INTEREST

Throughout the city, which invite the visits of strangers, and public buildings of note which attract tourists and sight-seekers. The Temple block is about the most noted. It is a square of ten acres, surrounded by a wall 10 feet high, built of adobes, but plastered, and with a coping of well cut stone, having a broad gate in the centre of each of the north, south, east and west walls. This block contains several buildings erected, and in course of erection, in connection with the worship and practices of the Latter-Day Saints.

THE TEMPLE,

In course of erection, is situated on the eastern part of the block, its main entrance, about 25 feet from the wall, directly in the centre, between north and south walls. It is 200 feet in length, east and west, and 100 feet wide. The foundation is laid 16 feet below the surface of the earth, and is 16 feet in thickness, built of a reddish quartzite, very hard and durable. This foundation is built on the most scientific principles, in the reversed arch plan, so that the vast weight of the great walls may be distributed equally. The walls built on this foundation are 9 feet 9 inches broad. They are of light-colored gray granite, once part of the eternal walls of the everlasting Wasatch Mountains, and taken from Little Cottonwood Canyon, a distance of 18 miles southeast from the city, brought thither, formerly by oxen, but now by rail. On the 14th day of February, 1853, the ground for the Temple was consecrated, and on the 6th day of April, 1853, the corner stones were laid with solemn and imposing ceremonies. The walls are now (1883) raised about 60 feet from the ground, and will be, according to the elevations and plan, 100 feet high. They are 6 feet 6 inches thick but will terminate at 5 feet.

This structure is of elegant design and fine proportions, and will be an unique and remarkable building. Three towers will be erected on each end; east and west, the centre ones of which will stand higher than its fellows, rising to an altitude of 200 feet. A circular stairway in each will wind around a column 4 feet in diameter. From the present appearance of its walls, and the drawings and elevations published, this edifice will be a marvel of beauty, strength and solidity. The work has already cost upwards of $3,000,000, and, it is estimated, cannot be finished at less than $10,000,000. It is not designed for public divine services, but for ceremonies peculiar to the Latter-Day Saints' faith, such as washings, anointings, baptisms, ordinations, sealings, prayer circles and other rites, both for the living and the dead. These ceremonies are now being celebrated in

THE ENDOWMENT HOUSE,

Which is situated on the same block, until the Temple is completed and dedicated. This house, a plain square building of adobes, may be considered as a temporary and miniature temple internally.

Conspicuous to the eyes of the spectator in glancing over the city, from any elevated position, is

THE TABERNACLE.

This is erected on the same block, directly west of the Temple. It is a remarkable piece of architecture, in the form of an ellipse or oval, its transverse diameter being 233 feet and its conjugate 133 feet, in the inside, being 70 feet in height from floor to ceiling. On its 46 pillars made of red sandstone, rests its huge roof, rising dome-shape, in form of a vast ogee or cyma reversa, without the support of pillars, having one single span from end to end and from side to side. This roof is ten feet through, made of heavy lattice work, bolted together in the most skillful and mechanical manner. A spacious gallery is erected inside, occupying about three-fourths of the sides, the west end being occupied by the rostrum; this, alone, capable of accommodating 3,750 persons. The whole building is said to be capable of seating 13,452 persons. There are twenty doors to this edifice, most of which are nine feet wide, and the full congregation can effect an exit in one and a half minutes.

In the west end of the interior is the rostrum, the rows of seats in the centre being graded for the occupancy of the official authorities of the church, from the President to the Bishops. At the rear of the rostrum is the grand organ, and at the sides, in front of which, are seats for a choir of a hundred singers. This organ when constructed was the largest instrument built in America, and is now the third largest in the United States. This instrument was wholly built by Utah artisans from material obtained here, with the exception of the metal pipes. These pipes number nearly three thousand, the largest of which is two feet square and thirty-two feet long. It is thirty feet deep by thirty feet wide, rising fifty-eight feet to the summits of the great towers. It has three manuals, great and swell, heavily filled. Its tone and volume are full and the edifice, so large in its proportions, enable its power to be appreciated and felt.

The next building that strikes the eye is

THE SALT LAKE ASSEMBLY HALL,

Also erected on this block. It is well-built of granite, squared and pointed, and presents a good substantial appearance. It is 120 fee long by 68 feet broad, the walls rising 33 feet to the square. The central spire is 136 feet in height from the ground and the walls are ornamented by twenty graceful minarets, each 21 feet high. From floor to ceiling is 40 feet, and a broad gallery encircles the entire hall. The ceiling is adorned with historical and biblical studies in fresco. At the west end stands a fine organ and seats for the choristers. It will seat about 3,500 worshippers, and, being only used for winter and evening meetings, it is comfortably heated and lighted. The walls are calsomined in tints, the wainscotting and seats are well grained and the whole internal finish is elaborate and tasteful. This hall cost about $130,000 and presents a pleasing appearance.

THE THEATRE

Is situated on the corner of First South and First East streets. It is built of rock and adobe, with a handsome granite finish, rather after the Doric style, having massive cornices and fluted pillars, and is an imposing building to the eye. It is 175 feet long and 80 feet wide, and from floor to ceiling is about 40 feet high. It is substantially built and the stockholders are determined to make it commodious, tasteful, useful and safe. The stage is 62 feet deep by 32 feet at the proscenium, fully furnished with scenery (some of which display the finest art and imagination and best skill,) traps and properties. This theatre has an orchestra, parquette, dress circle, three upper circles and four private boxes—two of the latter on each side of the proscenium. It will seat about 1,500 persons comfortably and is well furnished. It is tastefully and elaborately finished, presenting in its ample lighting a rich appearance. In all its appointments—in dressing rooms, orchestra, stage mechanics and property rooms—it is equal to any theatre on the continent. At the suggestion, and by the instructions of the stockholders, of this grand building, the managers are making many improvements and decorations, as rapidly as possible, throughout its entire interior; and they purpose to expend on it no less a sum, altogether, than $60,000. It is a theatre that the West, and especially Utah, may be justly proud of. Some of the most talented and famed artists of America and Europe have strutted their brief hours upon this stage, and comedians of all comicalities and variable abilities have lived their mimic lives, with corresponding applause and laughter, here also.

The theatre is leased by the popular dramatic caterer and sucessful and talented promoter of genuine, entertaining and pure public amusements, Mr. J. H. Haverly, Esq., of Chicago. Messrs. H. B. Clawson, John T. Caine and David McKenzie are the careful, wise and judicious managers.

THE CITY HALL,

Built at a cost of $70,000, stands on the south-east corner of First East and First South streets, about 160 feet obliquely from the theatre. It is 60 feet square, two stories high, constructed of red sandstone, and is surmounted with a clock tower. It contains offices for all the city functionaries, from Mayor to Watermaster, including a room for Aldermen's or Justice's courts as well as a Council chamber for the City Fathers to deliberate therein. The Territorial Legislature meets here to enact laws and discuss bills bienially. The City Prison stands at the rear of this hall and is also built of red sandstone, constructed so that criminals may not cut through the cement. It is strongly made, costing about $40,000.

THE COUNTY COURT HOUSE

Is situated on the north-east corner of the intersection of Second West and Second South streets. It is a large square building of two stories, with a deep basement consisting of several rooms used as cells for county prisoners. The foundation and basement are of rock, the walls of adobe, plastered. The county officials, namely, the Probate Judge, Clerk, Sheriff, Recorder and Assessor and Collector, have offices on the floor of the first story. A large, well-lighted, furnished and commodious court-room, with jurors' rooms, cover the second story. It is kept in good order and repair, clean and airy. It cost about $20,000.

THE CHURCHES.

As we have said, the Latter-Day Saints meet on Sunday mornings and afternoons in the Tabernacle during summer, and in the Assembly Hall during the latter part of spring, fall and winter. In every Bishop's ward in the city they also hold meetings every Sunday night, either in the school-house of the ward or in a chapel or hall dedicated for that purpose. John Taylor and his counselors preside over the whole church, but at the Tabernacle or Assembly Hall the Presidency of the Salt Lake County Stake preside. In each ward meeting, the bishop and his two counselors preside. Over this stake of Zion, Elders Angus Cannon is President and D. O. Calder and Joseph E. Taylor his counselors.

THE EPISCOPALIANS

Have a neat cathedral, named St. Mark's, built of red sandstone, solid and substantial, with little or no ornamental work on the interior. It is comfortably furnished with pews, and the chancel is neat and presents an imposing ecclesiastical appearance. Bishop D. S. Tuttle is Rector and the Rev. N. F. Putnam and the Rev. G. D. B. Miller are assistants. During the year an addition was built to the Cathedral on the east side, in which is a magnificent organ and room for the choir. It is quite attractive and an improvement to the interior.

This Cathedral is situate on First South street, between Second and Third East streets, north side. This body of Christians has also a very neat and imposing church, called St. Paul s, on the south-east corner of East Temple and Fourth South streets. It is well fitted up for worshippers, and displays the usual chancel, table and desks for the clergy. Rev. Mr. Armstrong is minister.

THE EPISCOPAL METHODISTS

Have a fine large church, built of good brick, cruciform in style, with stained glass windows, of scriptural designs, The church is two stories high, the lower story having good, well lighted and ventilated schoolrooms and parlors. The Rocky Mountain Seminary is held in these. In the upper story is the large auditorium, well seated and comfortable. A good and large organ is erected to the left of the platform or desk. The Rev. T. C. Iliff is pastor of this church.

THE ROMAN CATHOLICS

Have a good brick building called St. Mary Magdalene. It is pleasantly situated on Second East between South Temple and First South Sts., west side. It is neatly furnished and commodious, and the altar is imposing and characteristic of the worship of the old faith. The Rev. Father Scanlan is pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. Keiley.

THE CONGREGATIONALISTS

Worship in a neat, plain building on Third South street, between East and West Temple streets, south side. It is built substantially of adobe, but its interior is suitable and comfortable for the worshippers and hearers. The Rev. F. T. Lee is pastor.

THE PRESBYTERIAN

Church is erected on the north-east corner of Second East and Second South streets. It is built of lumber, Gothic windows, a larger and a smaller tower, of good proportions and comfortable. The basement is built of red sandstone, which is occupied as class rooms and for prayer and business meetings in connection with the church. The Rev. R. G. McNiece is the pastor.

THE RE-ORGANIZED CHURCH

Of the Latter-Day Saints have a small neat brick building, as a chapel, a little east of the south-east corner of Second South and Second East streets. This is sometimes called the "Josephite" church. Elder Joseph Luff is the presiding officer under the authority of Elder W. W. Blair, one of the Twelve Apostles of that organization.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptists have no church building, but meet in Pendleton's Hall, west of the Walker Opera House. They have an organization, and hold services every Sunday, conducted by G. Morse, M. D., until a pastor is elected, and in the absence of Rev. Dwight Spencer, President of the Baptist Mission in Utah. They purpose building a suitable church during the present year.

THE LUTHERANS

Meet in St. Mark's Schoolroom, and have service every Sunday. The hearers are principally Scandinavian and German. Rev. Mr. Hill is pastor.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Church, for Scandinavian services, meet in the parlors of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Sunday and Friday evenings.

THE LIBERAL INSTITUTE

Is a fine square building, situated north of the Presbyterian Church. Is used for public lectures, especially on Spiritualism, Secularism and other subjects not generally treated on in churches. Public meetings, political and social, are held in it. It was built by the out-comers from Mormonism, and supplies a want felt in all cities where a free and liberal element exists. It is well lighted and plainly furnished, and comfortable at all seasons.

EDUCATIONAL.

Not only is there a public schoolhouse in every Bishop's ward in the city, organized and sustained to impart a rudimental education, but there are several excellent institutions and edifices devoted to the teaching of the higher branches of learning. These institutions are presided over by scholarly gentlemen, of high attainments and extensive erudition; their marked ability, for the noble and generous work, place them in the front ranks as educators, all graduates of noted universities.

THE DESERET UNIVERSITY.

This institution has no permanent building at present, but one is in course of erection which will be suitable and commodious. We are sorry to learn that by some unfortunate misunderstanding with His Excellency, the Governor of the Territory, the progress of the building was arrested by his refusing to sign, at the last session of the Territorial Legislature, an economical appropriation for its completion. It is to be hoped that no such calamity may befall it next session, which will meet in January, 1881. At present the students convene in a large building near Union Square. It has an average attendance of 200, is well supplied with mathematical, philosophical and chemical apparatus, has a valuable cabinet of minerals and curiosities, and has a library of standard and miscellaneous works, consisting of 2,600 volumes. Professor J. W. Park, M. D., is principal, assisted by Prof. Toronto and Prof. Kingsbury. It is partially supported by fees, but the Legislature appropriates $5,000 annually towards its support, providing that it gives a year's course of normal teaching to forty representative students from different parts of the Territory.

ST. MARK'S SCHOOL.

This educational institution was opened in 1867, and is under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church. It has an average attendance of 350 pupils, classified in eleven grades, having an efficient tutor over each grade. The school in some departments is held in St. Mark's school, a large two-story building, with good light and commodious rooms, situated nearly opposite the City Hall; other department meet in the basement of the Cathedral, and still other classes in Rowland Hall, in the 18th Bishop's Ward. This hall was built in 1881, was the gift of Mrs. Benjamin Rowland of Philadelphia, bestowed and erected in memory of her late husband. The whole is under the supervision of Rt. Rev. Bishop D. S. Tuttle, of the Diocese of Utah, and Idaho. Rev. G. D. B. Miller is Principal, assisted by a corps of proficient professors and tutors.

ST. MARY'S ACADEMY,

Is conducted by the Roman Catholic Church, under the care of the "Sisters of Charity." It is large and commodious, pleasantly situated on First West, between First and Second South streets, west side. The grounds are ample, and under the supervision of the devoted and self-sacrificing "Sisters," are neat and tastefully kept. It has 110 young lady pupils, boarders, and 150 day pupils, from this and adjacent territories. On the same grounds and nearly adjoining, is St. Joseph, conducted under the same thoughtful direction of the Sisters, and is characterized with good discipline and moral and intellectual training. The Revs. Father Scanlan and Keiley being constant visitors, the progress of the pupils in manners, morals and ability is marked.

THE SALT LAKE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

This school is conducted and supported by the Presbyterian Church. It was organized eight years ago, and has at present about 200 pupils. Though under the charge of this Christian body, it is unsectarian, yet moral training is not overlooked, being distinguished for its moral and intellectual progress and worth. Prof. J. M. Coyner, Ph. D., an earnest and devoted educator, is Superintendent, assisted by talented and learned teachers, graduates of the best colleges in the United States. This body of Christians have opened free schools in other parts of the city, where all who apply will receive the benefit of a free tuition. They are in charge of educated and experienced teachers.

SALT LAKE ACADEMY

Is connected with the Congregational Church in Utah, but under the protection of the New West Educational Association. It convenes, at present, in Independence Hall; but an elegant building, nearly finished, called Hammond Hall, in the Ninth Ward, will be opened in a few weeks for its use. It will be classified in the several grades of study and will possess every advantage which mark similar Institutions in the Eastern States. Prof. E. Benner is Superintendent, and is assisted by professors and tutors of high standing, superior ability and great professional experience, which make them successful and respected. Other schools, in connection with this movement, are organized in several wards of the city, where all applicants may receive instructions free, under teachers of peculiar efficiency.

THE SALT LAKE SEMINARY

Is organized under the care of the Methodist Episcopal Church, situated on Third South, between East Temple and First East streets, north side. It convenes in the ground story of the church edifice. The seminary is in a prosperous condition, and the oversight of the acting principal, Prof. T. W. Lincoln, assisted by able and experienced teachers. It is purposed to have a college grow out of this seminary. The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church patronizes this institution, and it is expected that this year there will be erected a large building on the grounds for the boarding of pupils. The sum of $5,000 has been raised already in the East for that purpose, by the society, and nothing shall detract from its being as excellent an institution as means and ability can accomplish.

THE HEBREWS

Have erected in this city, corner of First West and Third South streets, a handsome, cheerful and commodious schoolhouse, open for all comers, especially for the sons and daughters of the members of that church.

Private schools are common in the wards, and are well patronized. The ladies and gentlemen devoted to this work are persons of distinction and are much encouraged in the good enterprises.

The citizens of Salt Lake City are universally interested in the education of their children, and year after year greater facilities are offered for the acquisition of the broadest, highest and complete culture that these institutions can afford. Most of the teachers are graduates from the best colleges, and not a few from the normal department of Deseret University.

BENEVOLENT SECRET SOCIETIES.

These institutions are very popular in the city, not only are they esteemed for the charitable uses for which they are organized, but they collect together a number of men of high standing in morals, and of vigorous health. The spirit of the institutions is broad and liberal, and the duties and objects are very generously and faithfully executed.

THE FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS,

Or Free Masons, have a Grand Lodge, organized January 16th, 1872, which meets the second Tuesday in November annually, governing seven subordinate lodges, three of which are organized in Salt Lake City as follows:

THE WASATCH LODGE OF A. F. & A. M. NO. I.

Regular meetings the second Friday in each month, at Masonic Hall on East Temple street.

MOUNT MORIAH LODGE, NO. II.

Regular meetings the second Monday in each month, at Masonic Hall.

ARGENTA LODGE, NO. III.

Regular meetings the first Tuesday in each month, at Masonic Hall.

In connection with Free Masonry, though not governed by the Grand Lodge, yet members must be associated with some subordinate lodge, are

UTAH ROYAL ARCH CHAPTER, NO. I.

Regular convocations the first Wednesday in each month at Masonic Hall. And the UTAH COMMANDERY NO. I.

Knights Templar,—regular conclaves the first Thursday in each month at Masonic Hall.

THE MASONIC HALL

Is beautifully furnished, and comfortable as a lady's parlor. The ceiling is elaborately furnished with paintings illustrating the several degrees of Masonry, and incidents in connection with the history and degrees of the mystic tie.

THE GRAND LODGE

Of Masons has a large room fitted up comfortably as a library and reading room, open to the public daily, free, for reading and circulation. The library contains about 6,000 volumes, and periodicals from the most important cities of the Union.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

This excellent order has rooms beautifully fitted up in the stories over the Deseret National Bank. In Salt Lake City they have three lodges.

UTAH LODGE, NO. 1.—Meets every Thursday at 7.30, p. m., in rooms over G. M. Scott & Co's store, on East Temple street.

SALT LAKE LODGE NO. 2. O. F.—Meets every Friday at 7,30 p. m., over Deseret Bank.

Knights of Honor and Good Templars—lodges organized and in excellent order, meeting regularly at their several halls and rooms.

NEWSPAPER OFFICES.

There are four daily papers issued in the city—"The Deseret Evening News," "The Salt Lake Daily Herald" (morning issue,) "The Salt Lake Daily Tribune" (morning issue) and "The Evening Chronicle." Besides these are several weekly and monthly papers, namely the "Bikuben," (Scandinavian) a weekly, the "Woman's Exponent," a bi-weekly, the "Juvenile Instructor," a bi-weekly, the "Rocky Mountain Christian Advocate," a monthly religious paper, the "Utah Commercial," a monthly, the "Contributor," a monthly, "The Deseret Home," a monthly, and "Tullidge's Quarterly."

The public are always apprised of the various amusements that are open by the daily publication of the "Salt Lake Theatre Programme," and the "Operascope."

THE WALKER OPERA HOUSE.

This beautiful structure is situated a few yards west of the Walker Bros' Bank, and was erected in 1882 by that firm. It has a fine, imposing front, and an attractive appearance. Two stories and a lofty basement appear in front. One store on each side of the large and commodious doorway, and the stories above are occupied by Knights of Pythias and other benevolent societies. The Opera House is a magnificent building, 165 feet long, 67 feet wide, and 60 feet from floor to ceiling. The interior is highly ornamented and gorgeously decorated, having a pleasing effect on all who enter. It has a large stage, supplied with fine scenery and the necessary machinery, traps and properties, making it effective for all demands. The drop scene is a beautiful work of art, and the fancy sketch above the scene on the permanent wall is very pleasing. It has a parquette, dress circle, two upper circles, and three private circles each side of the proscenium. It has also a spacious orchestra, and every appointment necessary for a desirable theatre. It is pretty, commodious and very popular, not being surpassed by any house west of the Rocky Mountains. The proprietors will make it in every way a desirable place for the lovers of the divine art.

It is under the able, careful and generous management of Dr. D. Banks McKenzie and is often engaged or given for the popular Sunday evening lectures, through his influence and urbanity.

SUBURBAN ATTRACTIONS.

WHERE TO DRIVE.

It is a most pleasant drive to start from Main street through to the north-eastern portion of the city and, after passing along the elevated streets of the north bench, to descend again to South Temple street at a point near the eastern limits of the city. Continue thence due east, ascending to the eastern bench, and a short drive of a little more than a mile brings you to FORT DOUGLAS.

This delightful fort is the principal military post in Utah. During the last few years it has been entirely rebuilt, and the old log barracks and weather-board quarters have been replaced by stout and comfortable buildings of a pink sandstone that forms the bluffs overlooking the camp. The officers' residences have been arranged in a handsome crescent at the head of the level parade ground, and afford a splendid view of the neighboring city and the whole broad and magnificent valley. The post is under the command of Col. Alexander M. McCook, an officer of the Sixth Infantry, a large portion of his regiment being stationed here. Driving through the fort and past the military cemetery, the traveller will enjoy the pleasant hill and dale country beyond; especially as he will speedily be brought up short at

WAGNER'S BREWERY.

This fine property possesses interest aside from the sparkling beverage which we will admit to be its chief attraction. It is one of the largest breweries in the west, is orderly and clean and produces beer of excellent quality. Being about 4 miles from the city, it offers a good turning point in a pleasant drive. The road home can be varied ad infinitum, and can be made to take in

FULLER'S HILL.

Take either the 11th Ward or 1st Ward cars, starting from the "Emporium" corner every half hour. Ask the driver to put you off at Fuller's Hill. Here can be found all kinds of out-door games, swings, croquets, etc., including a camera obscura. The prettiest view of Salt Lake City can be had from Fuller's Hill, and the gardens are well worth visiting. They can be reached by an easy carriage drive.

Another drive is to take the State road for two and one-half miles southward, turn the next corner for the east, next corner for the south driving as far as Winder's farm; then turn again to the east and the traveller will soon reach

CALDER'S FARM.

This pleasant resort is between four and five miles from the city. It is cool, verdant and delightful. There is a large lake with boats' swings, groves, etc. Admission 25 cents.

The traveller can vary his return home by coming through the fields, avoiding the State road and leaving it to the west.

Still another drive is to go due north from the Walker House over the hill to the Warm Sulphur Baths. On the way, a charming view of the city and surrounding country is obtained from a commanding point of view. The drive may be continued over a moderately interesting road, along the base of the Wasatch mountains, past the Hot Spring lake to the Hot Springs themselves, which, although more picturesque, differ in no wise from those at the Baths except by their increased heat. They are 3½ miles from the city.

WHERE TO WALK OR RIDE.

It is, of course, very evident that a horseman or a pedestrian, if he be a good walker, can go to any of the places above mentioned. There are, however, other interesting routes accessible to him that the driver cannot well reach.

After going a block north of the Temple, on Main street, strike for the hill on the right and pursue the wagon road that winds along the edge of City Creek canyon, to the top of ENSIGN PEAK.

This is a rounded knoll, easily accessible, whose summit is 1,200 feet above the city. From this elevated position, a most magnificent range is visible. On a clear day, Mount Nebo, the highest peak of the Wasatch, 90 miles due south, can be seen. The view extends to almost an equal distance to the north. Westward, it takes in nearly all of the Great Salt Lake, with its islands, and affords a glimpse of the Great American desert. The summit of Ensign peak is not more than two miles north of the city, and it is of peculiar historical interest. It is said that years before the pioneers first saw this valley, it had been seen in a vision by the Prophet, Joseph Smith, who saw the "Standard of Zion" unfurled on this same Ensign peak. Hence its name.

A more difficult and extended mountain climb is to the summit of

BLACK MOUNTAIN,

Whose top can be seen, covered with pines, north east of the city. It appears rather a hazardous attempt on horseback, but the writer and many others have climbed these steeps in that manner more than once and have been amply repaid by the extraordinary magnificence of the view. To attempt it, gain the ridge of City Creek canyon on the hills above the 20th Ward bench and from thence take a natural and easy trail almost to the summit. A little climb, and as the top is neared, a lovely view of enormous range bursts on the adventurer's astonished gaze. We shall not attempt to describe it. It takes in scores of miles in every direction and gives at once a comprehensive panorama of the region. The summit is about 3,500 feet above and 5 miles north-east of the city.

Those who prefer a walk or ride that involves less climbing, will find a charming road up the canyon of City creek, north of the city. Entering Eagle Gate, the road gains beauty at every step until it culminates at a point about 8 miles north of the city. The road is good for horsemen and is traveled constantly by wagons; but is not suitable for pleasure driving, being somewhat rough.

PLEASANT RESORTS.

BIG COTTONWOOD CANYON.

A most pleasing summer trip, which can be made in from three days to a week, is an excursion on horseback to the series of small lakes at the head of Big Cottonwood Canyon, in the Wasatch Mountains. The direction from the city is south-east and the round trip is one of about fifty miles. At the canyon head, in summer, Mr. Brighton has a hotel, affording good accommodation, or the margin of Trout Lake. The visitor can here spend a few days very pleasantly, away from the dust and heat of the city, among swarthy pines and eternal snows. Short walks or rides of a few miles can be made in several directions to advantage, the most pleasing being that to Lakes Phœbe, Mary, Martha and Katrina, which lie linked among the highest peaks. They are surrounded by scenes of surpassing beauty and grandeur that call forth the highest sentiments of admiration.

LITTLE COTTONWOOD.

This canyon contains also some fine natural scenery, but cannot boast of such picturesque views as its more formidable neighbor. Its summit is more easily reached, however, being connected by rail from this city. From Alta, the terminus of the road, a trail of six miles over the divide, leads to Brighton's above mentioned. A good trip for a party of horsemen is to go up one canyon and down the other, making a trip of about seventy-five miles, lasting four or five days, and taking in some of the best scenery our mountains afford.

PARLEY'S PARK.

A third mountain jaunt is up Parley's Canyon, another pass whose entrance is in the same direction as the others but only about seven miles distant. It leads to Parley's Park, about twenty-five miles from here, on the eastern side of the range seen from the city. A good wagon or buggy road extends all the way, and the attraction in the Park is good fishing and hunting, pleasant drives and good fare at Kimball's Hotel. A daily stage connects this resort with the city.

AMERICAN FORK CANYON.

Take the 7 a. m. Utah Southern train to American Fork, a village thirty-four miles south of this city, in Utah Valley Fare $1.80. From this point will be obtained a splendid view of Utah Lake, a beautiful sheet of fresh water 225 miles square At the town put yourself under the guidance of Robert Kepperneck,—proprietor of the "American Fork House,"—and from him hire horses,—or any other conveyance, for the roads are first-class,—and visit the famous American Fork Canyon which has been justly termed the Yosemite of Utah. It is the wildest and most picturesque defile in northern Utah, and is one long series of natural wonders. "Towers, battlements, shattered castles and the images of mighty sentinels," a writer says, "exhibit their outlines against the sky. Rocks, twisted, gnarled and distorted; here a mass like the skeleton of some colossal tree which lightning had wrenched and burnt to fixed cinder; there another, vast and overhanging, apparently crumbling and thereatening to fall in ruin." The most striking portion of the pass is included in the first twelve miles from the town and expedition would enable the sight-seer to return in time to take the home train which leaves American Fork City at 4.34 p. m.

Other trips can be made in various directions, but we have pointed out the more interesting of the mountain scenery surrounding the city.

GREAT SALT LAKE.

Probably the most interesting feature of this entire region, certainly the most famous, is the Great Salt Lake itself, which is, at its nearest point, about nine miles distant from the city, but, owing to the marshy character of its shores it is not easily accessible at this point. The easiest methods of communication are either by the Utah Western Railway, or the Utah Central, the former running westward to Lake Point, Garfield and Black Rock, the latter northerly to Lake Shore. Bathing in Salt Lake is a most novel and pleasing experience. It is impossible to sink, the water is so dense and buoyant. The constant tendency, however, is for the head to go under, while the feet remain at the surface. But, with very little practice, men, women and children grow accustomed to its peculiarities, and during the warm summer months, resort to it in great numbers daily, and find in its waters a great source of exhilaration and refreshment. The surroundings of the lake on its southern extremity are picturesque; but at other points the shores are a picture of utter desolation.

FISHING AND HUNTING.

The canyon streams that surround the city are always, in season, well stocked with trout, and are annually the resort of professional and amateur anglers. It is useless to particularize, for City Creek, Parley's, Mill Creek, Big and Little Cottonwood, American Fork and Provo Canyons all have their quota of the finny tribe.

Those nimrods who are contented with small game will find their quarry on the plains over Jordan river, in the fall of the year. Hares and jack rabbits are there in abundance. In the oak brush around the neighboring foot hills are prairie chickens; and higher in the mountains are pine hens. Larger game, such as deer, is rare, although in early winter they are frequently seen in goodly numbers in the mountains. Bears actually infest the mountains in the north-eastern and some other portions of the Territory.

DIGEST OF COMMERCIAL LAW OF UTAH.

COMPILED BY S. W. DARKE & CO.

ACTIONS.

Actions for the recovery of real estate or interest therein, or for the determination in any form of such right or interest; or for injury to real property; for the partition thereof, for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien; must be brought in the county in which the land or some part thereof is situated. In all other cases the action shall be tried the county where cause of action originated or in which the defendants or any one of them may reside at the commencement of the action; or if none of the defendants reside in the Territory, or if residing in the Territory the county in which they reside be unknown to the plaintiff, the cause may be tried in any county which the plaintiff may designate in the complaint.

ARRESTS.

No arrest in civil cases except when the defendant is about to leave the Territory with intent to defraud creditors; when the property on which action has been brought to recover possession has been concealed or disposed of; when the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt; when the defendant has fraudulently converted to his own use money or other property of which he had charge.

ATTACHMENTS.

By filing bond of not less than two hundred dollars, nor exceeding the amount claimed, the plaintiff may have an attachment against the property of the defendant, both real and personal, and debts due defendant, except such as are exempt from execution.

CLAIMS AGAINST DECEASED PERSONS.

All claims not presented within ten months after the first publication of the notice of the executors shall be forever barred; except when at time of publication the claim be not then due; or if it be contingent it may be presented within ten months after it became due or absolute; or when the claimant had no notice by reason of not being a resident of the Territory, it may be presented any time before a decree of distribution is entered.

CORPORATIONS.

All corporations for mining, manufacturing, commercial or other industrial pursuits must be organized under the general laws of the Territory.

CONVEYANCES

By deed must be signed by the person from whom the estate or interest is intended to pass, or his lawful agent or attorney, and by one or more credible witnesses, and must be acknowledged or proved and recorded in the office of the recorder for the county in which the estate is situated. Every conveyance of real estate not recorded is void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, of the same real estate or any portion thereof, where his conveyance is first duly recorded.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

Proof or acknowledgments of any conveyance of real estate made in this Territory must be taken before and certified to by some judge or clerk of a court having a seal, or some notary public or county recorder, or by a justice of the peace of the county where the conveyance is executed and to be recorded. When any of these officers are authorized by law to appoint a deputy such acknowledgment or proof may be taken by any such deputy in the name of his principal. A married woman may convey any of her real estate, or any interest therein by conveyance thereof, executed, acknowledged and certified to, in the same manner as other persons.

DEPOSITIONS.

Depositions must be taken in this Territory before a judge or clerk of a court, or a justice of the peace or notary public. Notice of the time and place of examination must be served upon the adverse party. Such notice must be at least five days, except the judge of the court giving the order to take the deposition shall for a cause shown prescribe a shorter time.

TESTIMONY.

A person against whom judgment has been rendered upon a conviction for felony, unless pardoned by the Governor, or unless the judgment has been reversed on appeal, cannot appear as a witness. A husband cannot be a witness for or against his wife, nor a wife for or against her husband; nor can either during the marriage or afterwards, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage. This rule does not apply to any action or proceeding brought by one against the other.

DIVORCE.

The Probate courts have jurisdiction in divorce and alimony, and actions must be brought in the court for the county in which plaintiff resides. The petition for a bill of divorce must be in writing, upon oath or affirmation. The courts may decree divorces from the bonds of matrimony for any of the following causes: impotency of the defendant at the time of marriage; adultery committed subsequent to marriage, willful desertion for more than a year; habitual drunkenness subsequent to marriage; conviction for felony; inhuman treatment and neglect to provide common necessaries. No right of dower exists in this Territory.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES.

Every conveyance of any real estate or interest in lands, or the rents or profits of lands, and every charge upon lands, or the rents or profits thereof, made or created with intent to defraud prior or subsequent purchasers thereof for a valuable consideration, unless accompanied by an immediate and actual change of possession, is void as against such purchasers. All deeds of gift, all conveyances, transfers or assignments, verbal or written, of goods, chattels or things in action made in trust for the use of the person making the same, is void as against the creditors existing or subsequent of such person. Every contract for the sale of any goods, chattels or things in action, for the price of three hundred dollars or over, is void unless a note or memorandum of such contract be made in writing and subscribed by the parties to be charged therewith, or unless the buyer shall accept or receive part of such goods, or the evidences, or some of the things in action; or unless the buyer shall at the time pay some part of the purchase money.

EXECUTIONS.

Executions may issue from courts of record within three years from the rendition of judgment, and any property sold on an execution may be redeemed within six months after sale on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase with six per cent. interest in addition, together with any assessment or taxes the purchaser may have paid thereon. The following property is exempt: chairs, tables, desks and books to the value of $100; necessary household, table and kitchen furniture; wearing apparel; one bed and bedstead and the necessary bedding for every two members of the family; provisions and fuel for sixty days; the farming utensils and implements of husbandry; two oxen, horses or mules, and their harness; one cow and calf for every five persons in the family, with their food for sixty days; and one cart or wagon; the tools of a mechanic; the instruments and chests of a surgeon, physician, surveyor or dentist, with their professional libraries; the law library of an attorney and the libraries of clergymen; the tent or cabin of a miner, and necessary tools used in mining not exceeding $400, and provisions for sixty days; the team and cart or wagon of a person who earns his living by their labor, and their food for sixty days; the horse, harness and vehicle of a physician, surgeon or clergyman; the sewing machine in actual use by the debtor or his family. head of a family, a further exemption is made of five sheep and their wool for every person in his family; two hogs and three pigs, and the necessary food for them for sixty days; all flax raised by the family, and the manufactures therefrom for their own use; the earnings of such debtor by his personal services for sixty days next preceding the levy to the amount of $100; a homestead not exceeding in value $1,000, and $25) for each other member of the family. No property owned by non-residents is exempt.

JURISDICTION.

Justices' courts have jurisdiction: where the amount involved does not exceed $300; in an action arising on contract for the recovery of money; in an action for damages for injury to the person or property, or for taking or detaining personal property; in an action for a fine, penalty or forfeiture; in an action upon a surety, bond or undertaking, or in an action to recover possession of personal property, and of suits for the collection of taxes; in actions for the possession of lands or tenements when the relation of landlord and tenant exists. Probate courts have jurisdiction in all matters relating to the settlement of the estates of decedents; in matters of guardianship and in granting divorces and alimony. District courts have jurisdiction in proceedings quo warranto, mandamus, in all suits or proceedings in chancery, in all actions at law in which the sum or value of the thing in controversy shall be $300 or upwards; in all controversies where the title, possession or boundaries of land or mines or mining claims shall be in dispute, whatever their value; in suits for divorce and of habeas corpus. The Supreme Court has jurisdiction in all cases of appeal and proceeding in error from the District Courts.

LIENS.

Any person who shall, under contract from the owner, or his agent, of any building or other improvement, perform any labor upon or furnish any material for the construction or repairing of such building or improvement, shall have a lien upon such building or improvement and the right of possession of the ground upon which the same is situated, with right of way to and from the same. Any sub-contractor, journeyman or laborer employed in the construction or repairing of any building or improvement, or in furnishing any material for the same, may give the owner notice in writing, setting forth the amount of his claim and the service rendered for which his employer is indebted to him and that he holds the owner responsible for the same, whereupon the owner of the building or other improvement shall be liable for the claim if indebted to the employee for the amount; if not, then for the amount due from him to the said employee at the time the notice was given. All baggage, goods and effects of every person boarding or lodging at a hotel, inn or boarding house, shall be subject to the lien of such hotel, inn or boarding-house keeper. Sales of such effects must be at public auction.

Shoemakers' Tools of all kinds, W. L. Pickard, Salt Lake.

LIMITATIONS.

Actions to enforce mechanics' or laborers' liens must be brought within one year from the completion of the work. Actions for the recovery of real property, or the possession thereof, must be brought within seven years from the date of losing such real property or the possession thereof. Actions upon judgment or decree of court must be brought within five years. Actions upon any contract, obligation or liability founded on a written instrument must be brought within four years. Actions upon an open account for goods or merchandise must be brought within two years.

UTAH COUNTY.

This county was organized in 1852, although it had been settled several years previous to that date. Its boundaries are: North by Salt Lake County, East by Wasatch County, South by Sanpete and Juab counties, and West by Juab and Tooele counties. It is one of the central counties and ranks in population, wealth and influence next to Salt Lake. The county has an area of over 2,000 square miles, much of which is excellent farming and meadow land, while the mountaneous portions afford an abundance of first-class timber. The midland counties are supplied with cedar posts from Rush and Cedar Valleys in this county. The total number of acres under cultivation in 1880 was over 45,000. Utah County leads the Territory in its yield of barley, corn, beans, sugar cane, hay, apples, pears, plums, apricots and shrub fruits. The eastern portion is well watered by copious streams from the Wasatch mountains which are conducted by canals and irrigating ditches over many thousands of acres. The cities and towns are ranged along the northern and eastern shores of Utah Lake with remarkable regularity. Utah Lake is a body of fresh water with a surface of about 225 square miles. It is well stocked with trout, mullet and chub which find a ready market in Salt Lake City. It occupies a central position in the county. The lake is emptied by the Jordan River which flows into Great Salt Lake.

PROVO CITY.

Is the county seat of Utah County, situated on the Provo River at the base of the Wasatch Mountains which at this point rise to a tremendous height.

One characteristic feature of this city is the large number of elegant dwellings of which it can boast. In addition to this there are quite a number of elaborate residences in the course of erection, also public buildings among which may be mentioned the large tabernacle and new theatre.

The industries of Provo consist conspicuously of woolen mills and sericulture. It is here also that millions of pounds of fruit are annually raised and dried for the markets.

The "Territorial Enquirer," published semi-weekly, is a good and authentic newspaper.

They have first-class schools, also the Brigham Young Academy, which is one of the most prominent places of learning in the Territory. It is here also that the Territorial Insane Asylum is located.

WEBER COUNTY.

This county, which ranks as one of the most important of the Territory, was first settled in 1850, and its county seat, Ogden, incorporated the following year. It is bounded on the north by Cache and Box Elder Counties, on the east by Rich, on the south by Davis and Morgan Counties, and on the west by the shore of the Great Salt Lake. It contains an area of nearly 600 square miles with a population variously estimated at from 22,000 to 25,000.

The county possesses fine agricultural facilities in its vast stretches of arable and pasture lands which are open to cultivation and are amply supplied with water for irrigating purposes.

Among her resources are her abundance of fine timber, a number of iron mines, and the Ogden and Weber Rivers that furnish abundant water power for milling and manufacturing interests. Weber County contains quite a number of towns besides Ogden City, most of them, however, being scattered farming villages.

Those ranking most in importance are, North Ogden, Hooper Alma, Harrisville, Huntsville, Plain City, Slaterville and Uintah.

Most of the area of the county is mountaneous in the extreme, embodying scenery that is romantic and sublime,

Amid the snowy peaks are charming valleys, some of which contain settlements, while all furnish good pasture for the numerous flocks and herds.

OGDEN.

This is the second largest city in importance in the Territory.

It is admirably located near the western base of the Wasatch range of mountains, at the junction of the Ogden and Weber River, which furnish more than enough requisite water power.

The city has grown steadily until the population has now reached about 8,000 souls. Ogden has inherent the elements of prosperity being central in a highly productive agricultural region, containing also first-class manufacturing facilities.

The natural beauties of the surrounding scenery are varied and of much interest to the exploring tourist.

This city is more popularly termed the Junction City, owing to the number of cross roads here,—of the many lines of railroads which communicate with all portions of the globe.

BOX ELDER COUNTY.

This is one of the largest of the Northern counties. It is bounded by Cache County to the East, on the West by the State of Nevada, on the North by Idaho Territory and on the South by Weber and Tooele counties and the Great Salt Lake. The Central Pacific Railroad enters this county a few miles north of Ogden and runs westward along the Lake shore to Nevada at the same point the Utah Central Railroad diverges to the northward passing through the county towards Cache. Quite a large district through the southwestern portion of the county is rendered blank by the Great American Desert, but to the northwest in the mountaineous districts are valuable mines of all descriptions and fine timber. That portion of the county basing the Wasatch mountains lays claim to the largest population. In this latter place the climate is extremely mild and well adapted to raising fruits, cereals, small grain, buckwheat, rye, flax, &c.

CACHE COUNTY

Is one of the most prosperous districts in the Territory, possessing most magnificent agricultural resources, splendid timber lands, quarries, manufactures, and above all a pushing and enterprising community. This county is bounded on the north by Idaho Territory, on the East by Rich county, on the south by Weber county and the west by Box Elder county. The population approaches 20,000. Its dimensions are nearly 1000 square miles and its property valuation estimated at about $2,000,000. The beautiful valley which bears this name is a principal feature of the county in its rich and arable soil.

LOGAN

The county seat of Cache is 67 miles from Ogden, beautifully situated at the mouth of Logan canyon, whence issues sufficient water to furnish more than any desired power for the numerous manufacturies thus enabling the large surplus to be utilized by the surrounding country for any necessary irrigating purposes. The city has a population of about 4,000, who are very industrious and enterprising. The Logan Temple is considesed one of the most magnificent structures in the entire west. The city boasts of quite a large number of elegant residences and public buildings, embracing about a dozen district and mission schools.

DAVIS COUNTY

This county, the smallest, yet not the least in importance, has an area of about 250 square miles. It is located between Weber and Salt Lake counties on the north and south and is bounded on the east by the Wasatch Mountains and on the west by the Great Salt Lake.

This county is very rich in agricultural resources. The Utah Central R. R. passes along the entire county through well tilled farms and bounteous orchards laden heavily with all kinds of fruits. Of the arable land contained in this county there is but little that is not constantly under cultivation.

FARMINGTON.

IRON COUNTY

Stretches from one side of the territory to the other, being bounded on the north by Beaver and Piute, and on the south by Washington and Kane counties. The eastern portion laps over the Colorado line. Tremendous deposits of iron are continually found in the county, and numberless coal claims with extraordinary large veins have been daily uncovered. Considerable prospecting for gold and silver and other metals has been thus far followed to a certain extent, however the hardy prospector will here find considerable unexplored territory in his untired researches for the precious boon. The county contains a large number of lumbering, flouring and other mills. The population is about 5,000.

JUAB COUNTY

Is one of the central counties, being bounded on the north by Utah and Tooele counties, on the south by Millard County, and on the west by the State of Nevada. It was first settled at Nephi. In the eastern part of the country a large number of rich mines have been developed, prominent among which rank the monster mines belonging to the Mammoth Mining & Milling Company at Tintic, who have also erected large mills and smelters—thus giving employment to thousands of men, and bringing the country into prominence as one of the greatest in importance which may furnish adequate resources sufficient to establish numerous large and permanent towns.

The county has an area of 100 square miles of the Oquirrh range of mountains. The climate is agreeable and healthy, the nights being cool in summer and the snow fall light in winter.

NEPHI,

The county seat of Juab County, is ninety-one miles south of Salt Lake City on the U. C. R. R. It has a population of 2,500, with its main support of farming and stock raising.

Near by, is the lordly Mount Nebo, 12,000 feet in height, the culmination of the Wasatch Range, and one of the grandest peaks in America.

PARK CITY,

About thirty-five miles south-east of Salt Lake City, is one of the most prosperous mining camps in the Territory. Among its mines which are most prominent is the Ontario and many others lately developed, in fact the camp is looked upon as being able to rank in harmony with the famous Leadville mining district at no distant day. Its population is variously estimated at from 1,500 to 1,600.

WASHINGTON COUNTY

Located in the extreme south-western corner of the territory, is bounded on the east by Kane County, on the west by the State of Nevada, on the north by Iron County, and on the south by Arizona. Has an area of about 2,000 square miles. In the river bottoms of the Virgin & Santa Clara Rivers there are tracts of very productive farming lands, which from the warmth of the climate, yield fruits of a semi-tropical nature. These include tobacco, rice, cotton, grapes, bananas, oranges, figs, &c. The county contains but little timber land, the climate being too warm for pineries, excepting in the highest mountains.
